Mr. Donald J. Longtin
President, Glastonbury Little League
1579 Manchester Road
Glastonbury, Connecticut 06033

Dear Mr. President:

In this happy and exciting moment of dedication, I am pleased to join in special recognition of two of the greatest forces in baseball - coaching and dreaming.

The Glastonbury Little League honors both today - Richard H. Ross who left wonderful marks of talent, sportsmanship and leadership, and this new field, built by volunteers, which mixes the rich soil of Connecticut with the soil of dreams - the Major Leagues.

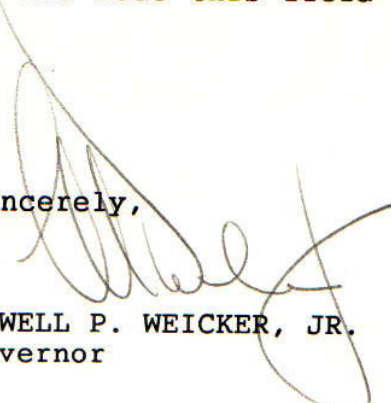

What a great mix - the American Pastime in the infield earth of this field. Let the games played here be the best of young ball players and let their talents - and dreams - take them one day to Fenway, the Stadium and all the others, even to Cooperstown.

Let it all begin today - the great game of baseball, the gift of coaching, the joy of playing, the lessons of winning and losing and a thanksgiving to all who made this field - and its dreams - possible.

Play Ball! Dream On!

With every good wish,

Sincerely,

LOWELL P. WEICKER, JR.
Governor
