

Coaches Code of Conduct and Responsibilities

As a youth recreational football coach at Midway Park you will be required to follow the below level of standards. Failure to uphold these expectations can result in, and is not limited to, penalties, including game forfeitures of your team, suspension of you and / or your coaching staff, and / or termination of all coaching responsibilities now or future with Midway Park or Forsyth County.

1. To coach all players, regardless of ability, in the same manner.
2. To practice good sportsmanship; never manipulating a rule(s) for the sake of winning.
3. Conduct yourself with the highest level of integrity and expect the same from your coaching staff; never using vulgarity or violence against any player, parent or official.
4. Maintain an organized practice schedule that is available to all your coaching staff.
5. To participate in all required activities including but not limited to: coaches' meetings, equipment distribution or collection, your team's practice and games, county provided coaching training, safety certifications or any other programs deemed necessary by the Board of Directors.
  - a. If provided a cheer squad to support your team, you will organize your team to attend Cheer Bowl during your cheer squad's assigned performance time.
6. Communicate with parents regarding matters that involve the team: scheduling, uniforms, practices, pictures, etc.
7. Follow all rules and regulations of Midway Park or whichever organizational rules that our Board of Directors has us play.
8. Any issues and sideline activities from your team leadership, parents, water helpers or other participants representing your team, is a direct reflection of the head coach; be responsible.
9. Be a hospitable host for any assigned home games to the visiting team. You will ensure that the field is properly set up, maintained throughout the game and break down the field, if required.
10. Support any recommendations made by the Board of Directors that is for the betterment of our program.

I have read, understood, and accepted the Code of Conduct and responsibilities to be a coach at Midway Park. You accept that any violation of these responsibilities, as deemed by our Board of Directors, can result in my removal as a coach at Midway Park, now and in the future.
