Minimum Playing Time Policy

Approved and Adopted November 10th, 2003

Pinto, Mustang, Bronco, Pony Cascade divisions:

1. Each player shall play a minimum of three (3) innings per game during the regular season.
 - 1.1. If a game is concluded early for any reason, the players who did not play the minimum number of innings must start and play the first three (3) innings of the next game.
 - 1.1.1. An exception to the minimum playing time rule (allowing for a player to be played less than 3 innings in a game) can be made only for disciplinary reasons such as violating the code of conduct. In such instances the umpire and opposing teams score keeper must be notified.
 - 1.1.2. All disciplinary actions must be reported to the Division Commissioner within 48 hours.
2. The three (3) -inning minimums apply only to regular season play.
 - 2.1. For the house league regular season playoffs, a two (2) inning minimum per game shall apply.
