

Spartan Girls' Lacrosse Camp

June 27-July 1, 2016

Entering 4th-8th grade

9:00 AM-4:00 PM*

Cost: $375

Directed by Lawrence Academy's Varsity Girls' Lacrosse Coach, Samantha McMahon, the Girls Lacrosse Camp focuses on elevating each player's level of skill. Throughout the week, we will elevate players' fundamentals (stick work, footwork) and help them gain a better sense of the game by working on smaller concepts on the defensive and offensive ends. Between lots of one-on-one attention and repetition in drills, we hope these girls come away feeling as though they have improved one or more aspects of their lacrosse game. This camp is for those at all levels of lacrosse experience.

As with all our camps, snacks, lunch and of course free swim in our outdoor pool are all included.

Note: Mouth guard, goggles, cleats (and/or sneakers), and a girls' lacrosse stick are needed for this camp.

* Extended care hours are offered each AM and PM.

About the Director/Coach

Samantha McMahon returns for her third year of directing Lawrence Academy's Girls' Lacrosse Camp. She is the school's Varsity Girls' Lacrosse head coach and serves as an Associate Director of Admissions and Director of Financial Aid. Samantha joined the LA community in July of 2013, after earning a Bachelor of Arts in Sociology and Gender Studies from Harvard University in 2011. As a four-year starter for the Harvard Girls' Lacrosse team, Samantha played defense and captained the squad in her senior year to the 2011 Ivy League Tournament Championship. Samantha also coaches for the Mass Elite lacrosse club.
