Dear Parents and Players:

In recent years we have had misunderstandings and problems between coaches, parents, and players. These are the sort of things that, when left unresolved, cause dissention and hard feelings between all involved.

In order to make the baseball season more enjoyable for all involved, we, the Executive Board of Green Mountain Baseball, have developed the following CODE OF CONDUCT for our players and parents.

PLAYERS

1. Will conduct themselves in an appropriate manner at all times.
2. Will show respect to all teammates and coaches.
3. Will attend and participate in all scheduled practices and games unless prior arrangements have been made with the coach.
4. Will not ridicule, put down, or swear at any player, coach, umpire, or parent at any time.
5. Agrees to comply with the Bylaws of the Green Mountain Junior Baseball as well as any rules and regulations that are created by the Executive Board of Board of Directors of Green Mountain Junior Baseball.

If a player does not conduct him/herself in accordance with the above ‘CODE OF CONDUCT,” the coach will let the player and/or parents know that he/she will be sent home and not allowed to play in the next scheduled game. If the problem persists, the coach will notify the Board and appropriate measures will be taken.

PARENTS

1. Will conduct themselves in an appropriate manner at all times.
2. Will be responsible to get their child to all scheduled practices and games on time. If there is a problem, notify the coach and try to make other arrangements.
3. Will speak to the coaches privately about any problems and/or concerns they have either before or after practice or game. (It would not be fair to everyone else to interrupt a practice or game for this purpose.)
4. Will not ridicule, put down, or swear at any player, coach, umpire, or parent at any time.
5. Agrees to comply with the Bylaws of Green Mountain Junior Baseball Association, as well as any rules and regulations that are created by the Executive Board or Board of Directors of Green Mountain Junior Baseball.

If a parent cannot follow and adhere to the above “CODE OF CONDUCT,” the coach(s) will speak to the person(s) involved and if this does not help, he will inform the Board and appropriate action will be taken.

Hopefully, these issues will be discussed between the parent and players, as they will be with the coaches, and we can have a very successful and fun season. This form must be signed (on back) before participation will be allowed.

Thank you for your cooperation.
