About Us

Diamond Club Baseball provides year-round training to players of all ages and ability levels with the goal of making each individual a better player. Diamond Club coaches accomplish this goal by communicating and demonstrating how proper fundamentals and a good mental approach will make each player more successful. Players will leave camp with various drills to correct and enhance their skills as well as an understanding of how to practice and prepare for game time. We stress the importance of hard work, positive attitude and responsibility.
