GACC NEW YORK NEWS

Even though it is off-season in Germany and the World Cup came to a successful end for the German team, the record champions from Munich keep themselves extremely busy. The team arrived in New York City on July 30 and beat C.D. Guadalajara 1-0 in a friendly game, opened Bayern Munich's new NYC office, went sightseeing, and, of course, reached out to their fans.

While Claudio Pizarro and Robert Lewandowski signed autographs at the T-Mobile store, Holger Badstuber and Xherdan Shaqiri stopped by the Paulaner Lower East Side brewery for an autograph session. Fans and press lined up to see the two athletes, and Sandy Jones, the certified translator of the German

TRADE FAIRS

bauma China 2014 | Shanghai | November 25 – 28

Asia's largest trade show for construction machinery, building material machines, construction vehicles and equipment is expected to break all records in 2014.

For the seventh time, bauma China will take place in the Shanghai New International Expo Center (SNIEC) from November 25-28, 2014 attracting all international key players in the industry. Once again, the entire available exhibition space of more than 3,2 billion ft² will be used in order to present the newest machines and products in the fields of construction sites, extraction and processing of raw materials, production of building materials and component and service suppliers. Organizers forecast the show to break all records – expecting more than 2,900 exhibitors as well as 180,000 visitors from all over the world. bauma China will again deliver proof of its status as the biggest and most important sector event in Asia. For more information, please visit www.bauma-china.com.
