Fairfax American League

Fairfax Little League Incorporated Constitution

Overview

Fairfax Little League Incorporated (FxLL), in accordance with Little League International (LLI) rules, is governed by a constitution which stipulates program management. FxLL is comprised of two separate and distinct baseball leagues (American and National) within our defined geographic area. This organization enables the league to field as many teams as we need to accommodate all the children enrolled in our program. It also enables economy of scale, using a single board and staff to support the two leagues in the assigned regions. Each league is separate and distinct, but shares this common constitution with one Board of Directors and general membership. As a result, the differences between the leagues are the name and leadership of each League President who also serve as Vice Presidents of the Board. This organizational structure supports FxLL's need to manage both common administrative functions (registration, evaluations, expenses, etc.) and our physical assets (baseball fields, equipment, etc.) for the benefit of all in our community. A copy of the league's signed Constitution is available for viewing on the Fairfax Little League website and at the Thaiss Park Snack Bar.
