Ryan Spooner interview

by Luke Mullen

Many SeaHawks player have seen Centerman Ryan Spooner whiz around the ice for the Providence Bruins ! Well, this year, the 2010, 2nd round draft pick by the Boston Bruins got his chance in the NHL. The result? He played first line center and was the Bruins most productive player in Spring 2015. Spooner hails from Kanata, Ontario and has been playing ice hockey since he was a young boy. South Shore SeaHawks roving reporter, Luke Mullen, recently caught up with the rising NHL star player.

Luke Mullen (LM): Who do you think will win the Stanley Cup?

Ryan Spooner (RS): Anaheim

LM (insert laugh): Who's better--Patrice Bergeron or Sidney Crosby?

RS (insert laugh): They're both great, but if I had to pick one, I take Bergy.

LM: What sports did you play as a kid?

RS: I played soccer, football, basketball, track & field. I played baseball but wasn't very good. I really love ping pong. I play a lot and I'm actually pretty good at it. When I played for the Peterborough Petes (OHL) the veterans always challenged the rookies.

LM: Who is the best player on the Bruins right now?

RS: Rask. He's a great goalie and can take a team far into the playoffs.

LM: What brand skates do you use?

RS: Bauer

LM: Who's your best friend on the B's?

RS (insert laugh): Dougie Hamilton, but I hang out with everyone.

LM: What was your hometown team in the NHL?

RS: The Ottawa Senators. I can see the arena from my house.

LM: Who were your favorite players when you were a kid?

RS: Alex Kovalev and Saku Koivu

LM: Who is the best player we don't know about?

RS: Conor McDavid. He's in the OHL right now and will be drafted this year along with Jack Eichel.

LM: When did you realize you were "good?"

RS: When I was 16 years old and playing in the OHL.

LM: What's the hardest thing about playing professional hockey?

RS: You don't get to see your family as much. When your'e not playing well, it's mentally challenging.
