Camp Director

Kyle Schmitt was named the Head Football Coach at Archbishop Spalding in February of 2013. The Cavaliers finished with an 8-3 record in the MIAA A conference. The team was ranked in the Top 25 in the state of Maryland and top 5 in Baltimore Sun final poll. Schmitt was previously the Head Coach at Atholton High School in Columbia, Maryland. During that time his teams had a record of 38-9 including the school's first ever Howard County Championship and three 10 win seasons. Atholton made the playoffs in each of his four years as Head Coach and finished 2011 ranked #7 in the state of Maryland. Prior to his time at Atholton Schmitt was a graduate assistant coach at the University of Maryland under Ralph Friedgen from 2007-2009. Schmitt was an All-Conference player at Maryland starting 27 games and participating in the Orange, Peach and Gator Bowls. He had a brief stint with the Arizona Cardinals and Minnesota Vikings following his career at Maryland.
