D League

- #'s are down, 54 registered in D and 15 in Flag
- Discussed option of getting rid of Flag again
- D teams could be down to 6 from 8 in 2012

OLD/NEW BUSINESS

- Anthony Glasgow stated with #'s down in C league, do we have any idea what the target number of kids we are looking for per team is (RG- Roughly 18 per team is ideal)
- Brian Allen asked if the Gators get retracted, will those players be put back into the draft (Answer is yes, they will go back into draft)
- Derek Ireland read a statement that was filed with the league minutes
- Todd McClelland asked if Friday could be used as a rain day (Answer, if the league sets it yes)
- Anthony Glasgow asked what days per week we will be practicing when we go down to three days (Answer: Most likely Monday, Tuesday and Thursday but that has not been finalized)
- Kevin Keane commented how coaches attendance was very poor. Kevin then read the mission statement of the league.
- Rob Burton mentioned that travel sports may be impacting football registrations
- John Washko asked if there have been any discussions of a football coaches clinic? (Kevin confirmed all coaches need to be NAYS certified and that the league has tried to run clinics in the past and no coaches show up)
- Mitch asked if we are going to set up baseline testing for our kids for concussions (The league is currently looking into this).

The next meeting of Upper Loudoun Youth Football, Inc. will be Monday, July 1st 2013.

There being no further business the meeting was adjourned at 7:56 PM
